Civil Action No. 15-CP-40-5273

AMENDED COMPLAINT
(Jury Trial Demanded)
(Class Action)

FILED
2015 SEP 18 AM 9:38
CLERK OF COURT
RICHLAND COUNTY, SC

The Plaintiff, Allison Colter, individually and as class representative, and those similarly situated, complaining of the Defendants herein, files their Amended Complaint and would respectfully show unto this Honorable Court as follows:

1. Plaintiff Allison Colter, individually and as class representative, is a resident of Richland County, South Carolina.

2. Defendant Omni Insurance Company (hereafter "Omni Insurance Co.") is a foreign corporation doing business in Richland County, South Carolina and may be served through the South Carolina Department of Insurance.

3. Defendant Omni Indemnity Company (hereafter "Omni Indemnity Co.") is a foreign corporation doing business in Richland County, South Carolina and may be served through the South Carolina Department of Insurance.

4. Jurisdiction and venue are proper in Richland County.

5. On February 17, 2015, Plaintiff was involved in an automobile accident with an insured of Omni Insurance Co. and/or Omni Indemnity Co. (collectively "Omni"), Kayla McDaniels, wherein Ms. McDaniels, traveling too fast for conditions, rear-ended Plaintiff's 2010 KIA vehicle, causing damage.

6. After submitting a claim for property damage as a result of the accident, Omni agreed that their insured was the liable party sought to reimburse Plaintiff for her property damages.

7. Omni represented to Plaintiff in this case and to others similarly situated in their cases that the amount Omni and/or its insured was responsible for paying was less than the repair estimate for the vehicle, due to an improper reduction from the repair estimate referred to by Omni as a "betterment" charge, as evidence by the correspondence from Omni attached hereto as Exhibit A. This "betterment" charge reflects the difference in value between a used damaged part (a muffler in Ms. Colter's case) and the new part that was used to replace it, as evidenced by the appraisal attached hereto as Exhibit B.

8. As a result of Omni's actions, Plaintiff was delayed in repairing her vehicle, was required to pay additional monies for storage costs, and was forced to incur attorney's fees in hiring an attorney to compel Omni to withdraw the betterment charge, re-adjust the claim, and reimburse her for the additional storage costs.

9. Omni knew, or should have known, that the "betterment" charge assessed against Plaintiff was illegal and not allowed under South Carolina law; was not, upon information and belief, allowed under its standard form insurance contract with its policyholders; and further that such attempt at imposing a betterment charge represents an unfair and deceptive act that impacts the public and has the potential for repetition and is, in fact, the standard business practice of Omni.

10. Upon information and belief, Omni's standard form automobile insurance contract, including the one applicable to Ms. McDaniels, does not authorize the imposition of a "betterment" charge nor is the imposition of a "betterment" proper under South Carolina law, which allows that the proper measure of damages for a damaged automobile is the value of the cost of repairs. Plaintiff therefore seeks appropriate compensatory damages on her behalf and on behalf of allow other similarly situated individuals who have suffered damages, including attorney's fees and costs, as a result of Omni's imposition of unauthorized betterment charges.

11. The class is defined to include the following individuals:

a. All Omni insureds residing in South Carolina who received property settlements which reflected the deduction of monies for a betterment charge;

b. All Omni insureds not residing in South Carolina who received property settlements for accidents which occurred in South Carolina which reflected deduction of monies for a betterment charge;

~~c. All South Carolina residents injured by at-fault Omni insureds whose property damage liability claim was adjusted to include the deduction for certain "betterments" to the vehicle; and~~

d. All non-South Carolina residents injured by at-fault Omni insureds in an accident in South Carolina whose property damage liability claim was adjusted to include the deduction for certain betterments to the vehicle.

For a First Cause of Action
(Breach of Contract)

12. The preceding paragraphs are incorporated herein as if repeated verbatim.

13. Upon information and belief, Omni's standard form insurance contract does not provide for the deduction of a betterment charge and by imposing a betterment charge to reduce payments to its insureds/policyholders, Omni has breached the contract with its insureds/policyholders, violated the covenant of good faith and fair dealing, and caused damages in excess of $100.00 per class member.

For a Second Cause of Action
(Fraud)

14. The preceding paragraphs are incorporated herein as if repeated verbatim.

15. Omni represented to its insureds, or those non-insureds (like the Plaintiff and others similarly situated) that it was entitled to deduct a betterment charge from its settlement of property damage claims.

16. Such representation was false and material.

17. Omni knew that it was not entitled to deduct a betterment charge from either its insureds or non-insureds and that such representation was false or, in the alternative, acted in reckless disregard of its falsity.

18. Omni intended that the Plaintiff and all those similarly situated, including the class members outlined above, would act upon the representation and accept the property damage settlement checks which reflected the deduction for a betterment.

19. The insureds and/or non-insureds did not know that the representation was false and relied upon the truthfulness of Omni in settling their claims and had the right to so rely.

20. As a result of Omni's fraud, the Plaintiffs have suffered injuries and damages in an amount to be proved at trial, to include punitive damages.

For a Third Cause of Action
(Violation of the South Carolina Unfair Trade Practices Act)

21. The preceding paragraphs are incorporated herein as if repeated verbatim.

22. Omni's actions were unfair or deceptive in that it willfully deducted from property damage settlements a betterment charge when it had no right to do so, and did so for its own financial gain, pocketing monies that was rightfully due to be paid to others and that such actions constitutes a business practice on the part of Omni.

23. Omni's actions impact the public interest, in that they have the potential for repetition.

24. As a result of Omni's actions, Plaintiff, and the other class members, suffered such damages as will be shown at trial and are entitled to an award of punitive damages and attorney's fees.

For a Fourth Cause of Action
(Negligent Misrepresentation)

25. The preceding paragraphs are incorporated herein as if repeated verbatim.

26. Omni made a false representation to the Plaintiff and others similarly situated, as defined above, when it represented to them that it was entitled and allowed to deduct a "betterment" charge from their property claim settlement.

27. Omni had a pecuniary interest in making such a false statement and, further, owed a duty to the Plaintiff and others to communicate truthfully with members of the public, consumers, and its insureds.

28. Omni breached its duty to communicate truthful information by failing to exercise due care when it wrongly represented that it was entitled to deduct a betterment charge.

29. Plaintiff and others were justified and reasonable in relying upon Omni's representation and suffered damages, including the amount of the betterment charge and legal fees, as a result of such reliance.

For a Fifth Cause of Action
(Negligence)

30. The preceding allegations are incorporated herein as if repeated verbatim.

31. Omni had a duty to properly adjust property damage claims and breached its duty and was careless and reckless when it sought to deduct a "betterment" charge from Plaintiff and those similarly situated settlements, knowing that such betterments were not the proper measure of damages.

32. Omni further had a duty to communicate truthful information to its insureds and claimants when adjusting property damage claims.

33. Omni knew or should have known that the deduction of the "betterment" charge was not lawful or in compliance with industry standards and regulations, and as a result of such negligence and gross negligence, Plaintiff and those similarly situated have suffered damages in such amount as may be proved at trial, to include punitive damages.

Wherefore, the Plaintiff and those similarly situated pray for a trial by jury and for actual damages; punitive damages; treble damages; the costs and attorney's fees of this action; pre-judgment interest; and such other legal and equitable relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Subject: YOUR ESTIMATE FOR YOUR VEHICLE - CLAIM # 2015-57001

Hello Ms. Colter,

Please see the enclosed copy of your estimate for the damages to your 2010 Kia Sportage. As discussed, you will need to provide a copy of this estimate to the shop of your choosing and have them to begin the repairs on your vehicle immediately. Should your shop have any issues with this estimate or find any hidden and/or missed damages, they will need to contact the independent appraisal company that is listed at the top of this estimate.

We have requested payment for the amount of $3977.93 to be issued to you. You should receive this payment within the next 3-10 days. Your estimate total came to $4291.80. There is a difference of $313.87 that is your responsibility. This comes from a betterment taken from the muffler replacement. Your muffler is a depreciable item and the cost of the muffler is $586.67 with taxes comes to $627.74. The muffler has been depreciated 50% based on the age and mileage on your vehicle. Should you have any questions with regards to the depreciation of your muffler, please contact the independent appraisal company (Everett Smith & Associates) Their number is listed at the top of this estimate.

My manager Jorge Robles (ext 3364) has approved a full-size vehicle for you through Hertz at his time.
